

Center Operations Directorate (C)

The Center Operations Directorate develops, implements, and manages a comprehensive, integrated, customer-focused program of mission support services for the Glenn Research Center. These services support the Center in accomplishing its research, technology, and program and project goals and objectives. The Directorate's broad categories of services include human resources and workforce planning; logistics and technical information; security management and safeguards; and procurement and acquisition, and minority university research programs.

